The Codorus Township Board of Supervisors met on May 13, 2021 at 7:30 PM. Board members present were: Lamar Glatfelter, Bob Gladfelter and Charlie Van Scoyoc. Others present were: April Rehbein, Attorney Andrew Herrold, Brandon Wright, John Amspacher, Steve & Carolyn Bupp and Kim Roberts.

The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag.

The minutes were approved as presented.

April Rehbein & Carolyn Bupp are recording the meeting.

The Markel/ Thomas subdivision plan was presented to the board for final approval. Bob made a motion to sign and approve the plan. Charlie seconded the motion. The motion carried. Vote 3-0.

Carolyn Bupp asked what the process would be to place a weight limit on Roser Road and Brenneman Road. Carolyn said both roads are being used for heavy truck and heavy equipment. Bob Gladfelter will check in with the Township engineer. Bob also commented that the maintenance on both of these roads has not been out of the ordinary.

Attorney Herrold talked about the off-road vehicle ordinance. Bob commented that it is not an enforceable ordinance. Bob would like to revisit this ordinance at a later time and make some changes.

Attorney Herrold informed the Board that the Township will be eligible for money from the American Recovery Relief Fund. The money can only be used on specific items such as extending broadband and cable.
