

March 9, 2016

The Codorus Township Board of Supervisors met on March 9, 2016 at 7:30 P.M. Board members present were: Lamar Glatfelter, Bob Gladfelter and Charlie Van Scoyoc. Others present were: Attorney Herrold, April Rehbein, John Amspacher, Carolyn & Steve Bupp and Brian Kaltreider.

The meeting opened with the pledge to the flag.

Bob made a motion to approve the minutes, seconded by Charlie. The motion carried. Vote 3-0.

Attorney Herrold spoke about the reservation of rights letter that was received from the insurance company. The insurance company will reimburse the Township up to $10,000 in legal fees in the case with Hillendale.

Attorney Herrold presented the resolution adding land of Laverie Miller to the Ag Security Area. Charlies made a motion to pass the resolution, seconded by Bob. The motion carried. Vote 3-0.

Attorney Herrold reported that he has spoken to Jeff Shue regarding the Powers Homes Preliminary plan. Any changes that were made to the ordinance after the preliminary plan was filed does not affect them.

Bob Gladfelter had a meeting with Jeff Shue, Keith Hunnings, 3 Amish men and their real estate agent. They are interested in the Shaffer farm on Spangler Road which is partially in Codorus and partially in North Codorus. They will need to contact York County Conservation District to see if they can build near the flood plain. They will get together a sketch plan with several different scenarios and bring to the Planning Commission.

Brad Martin reported to Bob that there are beer cans on Miller Road near the Frahn property.

Lamar reported that the Recreation Board met last night. Soccer will be starting on March 20th with tournaments scheduled for May & June.

Bob talked to Tony Crawford. Tony has given permission for the Township to improve the bottom of his driveway for a turnaround for the Penn Waste truck.

The bills were presented to the Board. Bob made a motion to pay the bills, seconded by Charlie. The motion carried. Vote 3-0.

The meeting adjourned at 8:05 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

April K. Rehbein
Secretary
