Also present were John Manning, Irvin Rappoldt & Marilyn Hodson. The Chairman, Charles Wehly, called the meeting to order. The minutes were read and approved.

John Manning reported he is building a pool on his property but cannot get a fence erected around the pool at the present time due to all fence installers being too busy. Anthony Pools, the pool contractor doesn't want to finish the pool until the fence is up. Mr. Manning asked for a letter from the Board giving him permission to have the pool completed & filled before the fence is installed.

Larry Luckenbaugh made a motion that the Township give Mr. Manning a letter stating the pool may be completed and filled without a fence upon Mr. Mannings receipt of a letter from the fence installer stating that the fence will be erected by a certain date and also that Mr. Manning be responsible for anything happening, seconded by Charles Wehly. Motion passed.

Larry Luckenbaugh made a motion to sign the General Revenue Sharing Statement of Assurance, seconded by Charles Wehly. Motion passed.

He is working on a per square foot cost for building and will report on this later. Also, Irvin asked about the driveway ordinance & will look into the State driveway permit specifications since the Township's new Driveway Permit Ordinance is not too clear.
