

November 12, 1997

The Codorus Township Board of Supervisors met in regular session on November 12, 1997 at 7:30 P.M. in the Township building. Board members present were: Lamar Glatfelter, James Bailey and Goldie Day. Others present were: Solicitor John Herrold, Marsha McKnight, Brian Baer, Irvin Rappoldt and April Rehbein.

Chairman Glatfelter called the meeting to order with the Pledge.

The minutes were approved as written.

The treasurer's report was presented to the Board.

Irvin Rappoldt gave the report of building permits issued during the month of October. He also reported that he checked on the buildings that James Yelton has built on the Larue property. Mr. Yelton did get three permits for the buildings.

Irvin also checked on the Glenn Amspacher property where John Amspacher is doing automotive work. John says he works mostly on family owned vehicles. He may be moving the repair business to the Glenville Feed Mill, now owned by his brother, Glenn Jr.

There were no public comments.

The secretary reported that Manheim Township will give a definite answer on the Pentland Road bridge after their meeting on November 17.

The secretary was told by the Board to pay Darrell Henry all the vacation days he is entitled to, regardless of the days worked in 1997. Darrell has been on disability for all but 3-2/3 months during 1997.

The bills were presented to the Board for payment approval.

James Bialek made a motion to pay the bills, seconded by Lamar Glatfelter. This motion carried.

Goldie Day made a motion to adjourn at 8:15 P.M., seconded by Lamar Glatfelter.

Respectfully submitted,

Goldie Day, Secretary
